JUDICIAL JUDGEMENT
Gandhi Smt. Maneka

Will the Minister of LAW AND JUSTICE be pleased to state:

(a) whether litigants face great difficulty in receiving copy of the judicial judgement from the courts;

(b) if so, the criteria fixed for receiving the copy of the judgement;

(c) whether the Government proposes to computerise the process so that they get the copy at short time; and

(d) if so, the details thereof ?

Answer

MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF LAW AND JUSTICE (SHRIK. VENKATAPATHY)

(a) to (d) The Court administration including delivery of judgement is the exclusive domain of Judiciary. The executive does not intervene in the process. Regarding, computerization, it may be stated that about 700 city courts in four metros have been computerized at a cost of Rs. 17.76 crores. A sum of Rs. 24.24 crpres were provided in 2003-04 for computerization of 900 courts located in State Capitals. Government has also approved a scheme of computerization of District Courts at a cost of Rs. 384.53 crores in 2005.
